

Judges Summary:

Judging the West Coast Challenge Championship Show 27.th of October 2025 in Perth was a pleasure. The show was very well organized. The show ground was perfect and the weather also. The club members were very kind and helpful, and the staff in the ring, steward, Robyn Knuckey and secretary, Leanne Irvine were both very professional and efficient, so I could concentrate 100 percent on the dogs. 62 dogs were entered, 49 were shown.

The overall quality of the dogs was very satisfying, and there were even a few of very high quality. The dogs were generally well trained and socialized and in a very good confirmation, although I noticed, mostly to the handler, that in some cases the teeth needed to be cleaned. Some anatomical details that I noticed were: The size was not a big issue. The front and the pasterns should in some cases (mostly the LC's) be more correct. The firmness of the hind was mostly quite good and only a very few were slightly too angulated. Most of the dogs were narrow, but straight going. I did not see a single dog with light eyes. A few should have been darker or were almost dark, but mostly the eyes were absolutely dark. This is a detail that I concentrate on, because we see too many light eyes, where I come from, unfortunately.

The presentation after the show was a very nice end of a very nice day.

Best regards

Ulla Hansen
